Past tense.
Present tense.
If you thought
they were tense,
wait till you see
the future!

What critics are saying...

"No one rewrites mainstream rock lyrics with more humor and prophetic insight than ApologetiX. From Boston to the Beatles, from Fall Out Boy to The Fray, Future Tense impersonates diverse musical voices to deliver poignant social commentary."

—Focus on the Family's Plugged In Magazine

"ApologetiX, "that Christian parody band", has been practicing their form of satire for over a decade and their latest release, Future Tense, shows their continuing expertise as practitioners of the art form.

It goes without saying that the better executed the parody the more successful the satire. On this count, chief lyricist and front man J. Jackson delivers the goods: biblical truth and social commentary that can run the gamut from subtly witty to scathingly wry. The lyrics of Future Tense are both perceptive and cheeky without being offensive or flippant."
