SRP $19.98 UPC 093681700109

Produced and Directed by two-time Grammy Award Nominee & Dove Award Winner Dave Moody A funny, yet touching story of one band's efforts in a small town church. Through their growing music ministry, the band not only reaches out to their community, but also grows in their own individual walk with God. Matt Young (Adam Melton), the new worship leader, is hired by Pastor James Monroe (Dana Bryan) to serve Crossroads Community Church when their music director of 30 years suddenly retires. Immediately, these young church leaders meet with much opposition from members of their congregation who still cling to traditional roots. Led by church treasurer Wayne Wilson (George Hamilton IV), the congregation resist the idea of change and this new style of music. Matt quickly assembles an unlikely group of talented musicians, Mark Lewis (Justin Ricketts), Luke Daniels (Dave Yelverton), John Collins (Jeff Luckadoo) and Wayne's granddaughter Ginny Taylor (Makenzie Little), each dealing with their own unique life issues. Together, can they find a common bond and unite a dwindling flock before it's too late? 105 minutes
