C Me Dance

A Dance That Shines Through Darkness

C Me Dance is the story of a teenage girl, Sheri (Christina DeMarco), who has trained her entire life to dance for the Pittsburgh Ballet (performed by Ballet Magnificat). At 17 years of age, her dream comes true, until she finds out that she is dying of cancer. One night after extensive prayer by Sheri and her father, Vince (Greg Robbins), while asking God for strength and clarity, a miracle happens: Sherri discovers she is able to bring people to Christ effortlessly. The devil finds out and tries to intervene. He manifests and comes to earth—let the thrill ride begin!

What People Are Saying

"A thrill ride with tender emotions along the way." -Dove Worldview

"An inspiring story...a decidedly Christian movie!" -Movieguide

"A cutting edge drama that runs deep with God's love and bone-chilling evil." -Rev. Ken Armstrong, Fruitdale Comm. Church, Grants Pass, OR

"Wow! Brilliant, illustrated some very deep principals better than I could have imagined." -Robby Dilmore, from Truth Broadcasting Network

"The movie brilliantly presents the battle between our superficial yearnings and God's dream to work through us to change our/the world. A haunting and supernatural conflict ensues. C Me Dance is a heart-stirring, must-see for all."

-Jeff Fischer, Pastor and Director of Revolution Ministries

"It's an exciting movie that challenges your heart not to waste the life that God has given you. Let the torch burn brightly before you turn it over to someone else."

-Mike Gestrich, Senior Pastor & Founder of Hilltop Baptist Church
