THE PATH OF THE WIND

After serving a ten-year sentence, Lee Ferguson (Joe Rowley) returns to the small town where he was raised. Looking to lead a simple life, he takes a job at the local grocery store where all he wants beyond a daily routine is to be left alone. But when Lee saves Katie (Liz Du Chez) from an attack, his life becomes anything but simple. Lee's budding relationship with Katie is threatened by a scheming coworker and a violent past which will not stay buried. When a mysterious stranger knocks at his door, Lee is suddenly confronted with the choices he made long ago. He must now decide how far he is willing to go to seek redemption. The Path of the Wind is a compelling story of love, vengeance, forgiveness, and the powers we choose to let guide us. Also starring Wilford Brimley.

"This is a story of forgiveness and redemption not only from others but also for one's self through God. This movie also portrays some of the misguided views that some people have regarding Evangelical Christians, religion and faith. The story will make the viewer think of the important things in life because it could change at any moment."
