MANHOOD JOURNEY (Available 6/1/2016)

Manhood Journey is a program for fathers and their sons. It is a non-denominational, Bible-based approach to building young men through the discipleship and mentorship of fathers.

It features guided Biblical discussion with fun, hands-on, interactive activities. Men can include other young men in their lives—nephews, neighbors or friends. Manhood Journey can be done with one father and son, or in a group of dads and sons. Young men without an engaged dad can be brought by a caring man who wants to be involved in their life.

Author: KENT EVANS is the board chairman and co-founder of Manhood Journey, a ministry that helps fathers and mentors build the next generation of godly men. Kent has personally experienced how the guidance of godly men can change the course of a life. Today he is blessed with a solid 20-year marriage, four wonderful sons and a fulfilling life — largely because of what he’s learned from other men. He lives in Louisville, Kentucky.
